

British Isles Family History Society of Greater Ottawa (BIFHSGO)
and the
OTTAWA BRANCH of the Ontario Genealogical Society (OGS)
presents

BEGINNERS COURSE in GENEALOGY

Saturday 21 March 2009, 9 am - noon

Exhibition Hall A

Library and Archives Canada, 395 Wellington Street, Ottawa

Free Parking in lots east of the building. Lunch not available at LAC on weekends.

Take your first steps in family research with the Beginners Course.

Syllabus

- Seven Golden Rules – by John D. Reid, author, lecturer, OGS member, and former BIFHSGO president
- Census Records – by Glenn Wright, author, archivist, consultant, and former BIFHSGO director of Research and Projects
- Civil Registration – by Alison Hare, board-certified genealogist, OGS and BIFHSGO member
- Local Resources – by Terry Findley, lecturer, and former BIFHSGO director of Conferences and Programs

Cost: BIFHSGO & OGS members, $20; non members, $25.

Register by mail (envelopes preferably postmarked by 12 March).

See website, E-mail address & telephone number below to obtain form.

Plan to take your next steps in genealogy research with the intermediate level course to be held during the 15th Annual BIFHSGO Conference in Sept. 2009.

Information & Registration Form:

Web site: www.bifhsgo.ca / Email: education@bifhsgo.ca

Tel: 613-234-2520 (voice mail).

Postal Address: BIFHSGO, Box 38026, Ottawa ON K2C 3Y7