

Kathryn has worked as an instructional designer, newspaper reporter, health care editor, instructor at Simon Fraser University, legal publishing technical writer, and genealogical researcher. She has a BA in English, a graduate degree in journalism, a P.L.C.G.S. in Canadian Records and General Methodology, and she is a certified online facilitator. Kathryn recently completed a four-year term as the program coordinator for the Quinte Branch of Ontario Ancestors. Newly retired, she plans to spend more time on family research (Scotland, England, Quebec) and writing. She is looking forward to spending time with family, friends, and her beloved beagle Archer.