Researching British Home Children

10:00 am to 11:30 am

Online event

Gloria Tubman offers an overview of British home children and the various resources available to research this topic. She relates stories of individuals using the information discovered in various resources in Canada and in Britain. You may look at your own family research differently.

About the Speaker

Gloria Tubman, granddaughter of a home child, has researched this topic for over 28 years and authored A Genealogists' Guide to Researching BRITISH HOME CHILDREN. The areas of genealogical and historical research include British home children, Quebec, the Ottawa Valley, and has led to research for "Who Do You Think You Are?" She is a co-instructor of a genealogy course at the Ottawa Stake Family History Centre and a volunteer at the Genealogy Drop-In co-hosted by the Ottawa Branch Ontario Ancestors and the Ottawa Public Library. She is a member of Ottawa Branch Council, Ontario Ancestors, and BIFHSGO.
