

Leanne Cooper is a federal public servant who has worked at the Canadian International Development Agency, Global Affairs Canada, and now Parks Canada. She's glad she likes her job, because it sure does cut into the genealogy time! Her roots are mostly in New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island, with English (and a few Scottish) ancestors. She has been a BIFHSGO member for five years. Leanne blogs at leannecoopergenealogy.ca.