

Shirley-Ann Pyefinch volunteers at and oversees the operations of the Ottawa Family History Centre. She has lectured on family history throughout Ontario and has enjoyed finding her own roots for over 40 years. Her research interests are in Ontario, Quebec, England, Ireland and France. She enjoys helping others find their ancestors, and is available to assist researchers Friday evenings at the Ottawa Family History Centre.